C-PILO AND THE ANNUAL AUCTION

Carolina Public Interest Law Organization (C-PILO) supports increased awareness of, access to, and participation in public interest law by fundraising and providing grants to Carolina Law students who work in low or non-paying public interest jobs during the summer. Grant recipients work in diverse areas including legal services, civil rights, environmental law, children's rights, appellate defense work, international human rights and prosecutorial work.

The annual auction is C-PILO's largest fundraiser and one of the law school's most popular events. It is a wonderful way to bring students, faculty, staff and alumni together to support the public interest community.

THANK YOU

None of this would be possible without the generosity and support of wonderful faculty, staff, alumni, students, friends and retailers who donate items to the auction. C-PILO recognizes donors by providing them with star pins to be worn the day of the auction. If you see someone wearing a star on January 25th, please take a moment to thank him or her.

We would especially like to thank Mr. Michael Parker and Professor Richard Myers for taking time out of their busy schedules to join us this evening. Mr. Parker was kind enough to donate his services to C-PILO for which we are extremely grateful.

C-PILO would like to thank the following people for their unending help and support:

DETAILS, DETAILS, DETAILS

This year's auction will be held at the Carolina Club at the George Watts Hill Alumni Center on campus on Thursday, January 25, beginning at 7 p.m. There will be light hors d'oeuvres and a cash bar. C-PILO volunteers will be collecting a $5 suggested donation at the door.

The evening's program will include both a live and a silent auction. The beautiful music of Erin Wynia ('08) (piano) and Trevor Cangelosi ('08) (viola) will entertain bidders during the silent auction.

The Silent Auction will be open from 7 to 8:15 p.m. For those who like to get an early start, the Silent Auction items will be on display at the law school January 22-25 from noon-1 p.m. in the rotunda.

The Live Auction will begin around 8:30 p.m. There are several contributions in the Live Auction that involve a number of people (wine tasting for 10, beach and ski homes, Broun/Motomura party). For these items, C-PILO recommends people get together before the auction, pool resources and plan a bidding strategy.

*Note: Items are not necessarily listed in the order of sale and are subject to be called in any order.

An Evening of Brazilian Dance. Two (2) tickets to the Dance Brazil "Retratos da Bahia" at Memorial Hall (UNC campus) on February 9, 2007 at 8PM. Dance Brazil's thrilling, high energy movement aesthetic fuses modern dance, samba and capoeira, a form thought to have been developed by African slaves as a means of self-defense in the 16th and 17th centuries. Forbidden to practice this martial art, the slaves disguised the form as dance, now common in parts of Brazil. Dance Brazil tours nationally and internationally and has appeared at the Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C., and Lincoln Center in New York. The company was featured in PBS's "Alive From Off Center" and "Egg: The Arts Show." $100 value.
