The Carolina Public Interest Law Organization invites you to COFFEE HOUR

on Saturday, August 25th from 3 to 5 pm

at Jack Sprat Cafe

(161 E. Franklin St., Chapel Hill, NC)

The Carolina Public Interest Law Organization (C-PILO) is a student-run group that works in collaboration with UNC Law and Friends of C-PILO, a nonprofit organization dedicated to promoting public interest law among Carolina Law students. C-PILO helps provide grants to students who accept summer internships in the public sector that are low- or non-paying; facilitates a network of support for students interested in pursuing public interest law; exposes the law school community to public interest law; and encourages students to pursue careers in the public sector.

COFFEE HOUR will be held the Saturday after first-year students complete orientation, before classes begin.

Questions about what we do? Visit our website at http://studentorgs.law.unc.edu/cpilo/about/default.aspx

*Actually, hours, plural. No obligation to drink coffee arises by virtue of your attendance.

You could, for example, drink a cup of tea, a glass of water, a glass of wine, a beer, or nothing at all.
