The Carolina Public Interest Law Organization invites you to a Different Kind of Library for a STUDY BREAK

Friday, September 14th, from 9 to 11:30 p.m. (at 120 E. Franklin St.)

The Carolina Public Interest Law Organization (C-PILo) is a student-run group that works in collaboration with UNC Law and Friends of C-PILo, a nonprofit organization dedicated to promoting public interest law among Carolina Law students. C-PILo helps provide grants to students who accept summer internships in the public sector that are low- or non-paying; facilitates a network of support for students interested in pursuing public interest law; exposes the law school community to public interest law; and encourages students to pursue careers in the public sector.

Questions about what we do? Visit our website at http://studentorgs.law.unc.edu/cpilo/default.aspx