- II. Open Forum (3 minutes per speaker / 15 minute maximum)
  - a. Moot Court filling entire bottom of general refrigerator with soda, though we told them last year that they couldn't do it. Will be in there for several days.
    - i. Josh Lawson is involved in Moot. He steps in, serendipitously
    - ii. Asked Josh to move the soda in to the Student Org suite. He said "okay!"
  - b. Ants are worse in the cold. So not a problem now because it's unseasonably warm.
    - i. Part of problem—need student groups to WIPE DOWN the desk/tables in the classrooms after events. Will send out on the listserv.
- III. Establishment of Quorum—established
  - a. Jackie and Kavita excused absence
  - b. Sara—late, meeting with professor
- IV. Approval of Agenda—approved
- V. Approval of Minutes

- VI. Officer Reports

    - i. Health and Wealth Week Update—now March 12-16
      - 1. There's a UNC baseball game that week, Wednesday, March 14 at 3pm. Crystal will try to set up block seating for the game.
      - 2. Still trying to figure out the inflatable basketball thing—it might be too small.
        - a. One option: the dunk tank! Maybe with professors? Maybe a fundraiser. But will definitely depend on professor-involvement and the weather.
    - ii. Jackets from Barristers'
      - 1. IF ANYONE HAS SCOTT LIBFRAND'S SUIT JACKET, PLEASE RETURN IT
      - 2. Still haven't had people to turn in their mistaken-identity jackets. Need to encourage our peers and their dates to do so.
    - iii. Chick-fil-a discussion
      - 1. This is a Snack-Shack and Chik-Fil-A arrangement, not SBA deal.
      - 2. Rachel (Lambda response): it still excludes the gay/lesbian members of our community. Also, Chik-Fil-A isn't just anti-gay, they're also anti-women's rights. An exclusion thing.

3. Crystal: not sure procedurally how to move forward in changing it.
  4. Elyssa: one idea, get a petition. Bring it to Snack-shack. They might not be able to get out of the contract, but can get the ball rolling maybe.
  5. Is this a political thing?
    - a. Rachel—not a political thing, it’s an exclusion thing. A group in our community is feeling excluded—a personal attack.
  6. Political determination is important, because in SBA’s bylaws that we don’t get involved in political things.
  7. Maybe need a petition—not for SBA to specifically back, but a petition from the community would be good
  8. Jennings—doesn’t even have to be limited to the law school, maybe extend to the entire campus
  9. Crystal—not sure what SBA can do, because this does seem to have some political undertones.
  10. Ryan—for the future, we need to address these issues ahead of time. Maybe we should have heard from Lambda before the Chik-fil-A breakfast biscuits started
- iv. Blood drive: this Friday!
    1. If you’re on a listserv, send it out! Get more signups!
  - v. Date auction update
    1. Only six people left who haven’t paid. Yay!

b. Vice President’s Report

c. Treasurer’s Report

d. Secretary’s Report

VII. Class Reports

a. 3L Class Report

- i. We’re getting people signed up to be Class Gift Ambassadors—meeting will be next week. Maybe next Wednesday
- ii. Note, might not have SBA meeting next week—Crystal will keep us up to date.
- iii. Question—can we get Ramses to come to Commencement?
  1. This will be Elyssa’s mission.

b. 2L Class Report

- i. Durham Bulls discussion—will have another meeting soon with the DBAP folks.
  1. Will send out a calendar, and Nick wants input from us to schedule a UNC Law game night.
  2. Wool E. Bull will be there! Maybe we can even get him to come to the law school.
  3. DBAP wants us to guarantee 100... daunting? Maybe not. 25 per class and 25 faculty and family.

c. 1L Class Report

- i. UNC Law Pad Folios Approval
