    - d. Will be in the Clinic lot: signups outside CSO
  - ii. Commencement (cap and gown costs, etc.) Discussion with John K
    - 1. Jackie: personal a really hard time to pay $70 unexpectedly, when we don't feel like it should be this expensive
      - a. JK: Have shopped around—other options are more expensive
    - 2. Rachel: what about the school purchasing the caps and gowns, so that we can just use them “for free” (though will be paid through fees)
      - a. JK: Other schools roll the cost into fees. We can look into this. Considerations will be longevity, storage, upkeep, etc.
      - b. Elyssa: the fee shifting would make a huge difference, helpful. Because of the timing of this cost. Or perhaps shifting the cost to August through fees or rental (when we get the money anew for the semester)
    - 3. JK: Can order online (will send the link). Order between late Feb and March to avoid late fees.
    - 4. Kavita: are we considered about Eric Holder controversy?
      - a. JK: always concerned about high profile speakers. We're working on a press release about him coming, but word has already spread.
      - b. Elyssa: some 3Ls are nervous that non-law school students will come and if there will be enough room at Carmichael
        - i. JK: doesn't seem likely that it will be a huge problem. Calculate: if every student participating brings 20, we'll still be fine.
    - 5. Jackie: last year we ran out of programs. Can we make a point of getting more?
      - a. JK: we're on it. But we can never order enough, because whatever we order will get taken. (Peanut gallery: darn scrap-bookers)
