*FOREIGN LANGUAGE INTERPRETER ASSISTANCE NEEDED***

UNC Law students often represent individuals in civil and immigration cases who require foreign language interpretation in preparing their cases. Many of these cases are asylum or other immigration matters. Clinic clients are certified as being unable to pay attorney or other legal fees. If you are willing to assist law students working with clients who do not speak English (primarily Spanish and French speakers), please contact Mairicait O'Neill at oneillm@email.unc.edu. If you indicate that you are willing, you make no commitment except that you may be contacted by a law student or clinic administrator asking whether you are available for assistance.
