6. LEARNING OPPORTUNITIES FOR CAROLINA LAW STUDENTS

*****

*FALL FACULTY WORKSHOP & SPEAKER SERIES***

Most Fridays the faculty hosts outside legal scholars who give workshops on articles or books in progress. The speakers circulate their papers in advance, and then the day of the talk set out the major argument for twenty minutes or so, followed by faculty discussion and questions for the remaining forty-five minutes. Many of the speakers have written pieces we have taught in our classes, and several students have expressed an interest in the Series. We would like to invite students to participate in the weekly workshops. If you are interested, please sign up a week in advance outside of Professor Davis's office (5087). The list of workshops is attached (also please watch the calendar on the law school website for changes). Lunch will be provided. You can direct any questions to Professor Davis at davisad@email.unc.edu. We look forward to seeing you there!
