Parking

- General Parking: UNC Department of Public Safety, 962 - 3951, www.dps.unc.edu/dps/2ndparkingpage.asp, The website has important info about eligibility/dates. Almost impossible to get an on-campus permit if you don't commute; most law students use the T-lot which is still a walk from the law school. Best bet is to get a CAP permit, use the bus system, and move your car to campus after 5:30.
- How to get a CAP Permit: www.dps.unc.edu/dps/alternatives/studentcapprogram.htm, Go to DPS (located on Manning Drive) and fill out a form; you need your vehicle registration and proof of insurance. Permits are unlimited, and the lots are on a first-come first served basis. You display the sticker in your car, park, and take a shuttle to campus. Bonus: cheaper rate if you park in Ram's Head lot with CAP sticker.

- Parking on Campus: After 5:30, most lots are open to anyone for parking. Law school parking lot is open at 5:30, as well as the spots on Ridge Rd.

Night Life

- East End Martini Bar, Chapel Hill, 929-0024, Dress trendy. 3 levels: Uptown for dancing, Martini for bar scene, deep end for dive bar atmosphere and cheap beer.
- West End Wine Bar, Chapel Hill, 967-7599, Amazing wine bar, upstairs outdoor patio. Downstairs is the Cellar, where you can play pool and order beer that isn't served upstairs. Dress is smart-casual. More sophisticated, laid-back atmosphere (aka no undergrads).
- He's Not Here, Chapel Hill, 942-7939, Tuesday nights: $3 "blue cups" - 32 oz. He's Not Cup, any beer, you keep the cup. "backyard of frat house feel," Payment is cash only.
- Lucy's, Chapel Hill, 933-2260, Really fun on Thursday nights (80's night). Nice outdoor patio, casual dress.
- Coffee Shop, Chapel Hill, 942-6875, Casual atmosphere, good drink specials.
- The Library, Chapel Hill, 968-6004, Good live music during weekends. Get there before 11 on Fridays and Saturdays if you don't want to wait in line.
- Goodfellow's, Chapel Hill, Fun on Saturday nights: drunken karaoke.
- Top of the Hill, Chapel Hill, Restaurant/brewery. On the 3rd floor of the building. Mixed crowd.
- La Res, Chapel Hill, Nice outdoor bar. Can have an "undergrad" feel.
